

Young Dog Handlers Training Course Scholarship

The Grand Forks Dog Training Club is proud to offer the GFDTC Young Dog Handlers Scholarship for young dog enthusiasts! Recipients of the scholarship will receive a voucher to enroll in a class at the GFDTC. The scholarship is part of the GFDTC's commitment to fostering responsible dog ownership in the Greater Grand Forks Community and beyond.

Eligibility

Applicants must be minimum 10-18 years old and currently enrolled in elementary, middle, or high school. Applicants under the age of 16 must plan to attend classes with an adult to help supervise the dog and young handler during classes.

Selection Criteria

Scholarship recipients will be selected by the GFDTC board based on the following criteria:

- Commitment to the pursuit of responsible dog ownership.
- A completed application form that includes all signatures, information, and answers to the application short answer questions.

Scholarship Award

Recipients of the GFDTC Young Dog Handlers Scholarship will receive a scholarship training course voucher good for enrollment into a GFDTC hosted class six months from issuance (voucher is not eligible for seminars or private lessons). The scholarship training course voucher is not transferrable and must be redeemed for use by the recipient. Redemption of voucher is subject to training course availability, an ability by the dog and handler to be in a group class setting, a submitted and completed course registration acceptance, notification of acceptance into that course by Registration Coordinator and prerequisite requirements of desired training course. The scholarship dog training course voucher has no cash value.

Application Process

The GFDTC will award multiple scholarships throughout the year. Submissions must be made by the first of the month of February, April, June, August, October, December for consideration. Selection from the pool of applicants will occur at GFDTC Board meetings. Recipients will be notified by phone and announced on our Facebook page and on our Website. Those that did not receive an award will be notified via email but will be eligible to remain in the pool of applicants for the next 6 months.
